426/28

VERAGES

MASHING.

94/51

French patent 182,239, March 17,1887.

Vol. 62 . Products Chimique.

1. The application of malt to the extraction of amylaceous matter at temperatures always above 70° and between 70° and 80° C.

2. The complete and rapid exhaustion of the amylaceous matter by two extractions with malt, the one before the other after the boiling the wort.

3rd. The boiling filtration of the wort after second extraction.

4. The treatment of the filtered and cooled wort by an infusion of malt at 72° .